VII. Promise of Freedom Campout Subcommittee

A. Objective and Purpose
The Promise of Freedom Campout (POFC) is an Albany Rensselaer Area of Narcotics Anonymous (ARANA) subcommittee. The objective of this subcommittee is to provide services for, and oversight of, the annual event known as the Promise of Freedom Campout. The purpose of this event is to carry the message of recovery from addiction in a recreational setting that welcomes recovering addicts from the Albany Rensselaer Area and beyond. The Promise of Freedom Campout endorses the beliefs of Narcotics Anonymous and operates under the guidelines of the Twelve Traditions and Twelve Concepts of Narcotics Anonymous.

The subcommittee stages an annual event with NA meetings, workshops, and fellowship that accompanies any gathering of recovering addicts. Trusted servants will seek to maintain an atmosphere that nurtures recovery throughout the event. Unless otherwise provided by the ARANA, the subcommittee shall have the authority to do all things necessary to carry out its business and affairs, while maintaining accountability to the ARANA groups. This policy document outlines the WHO and WHAT principles for the POFC subcommittee. Please refer to the ‘Promise of Freedom Campout Procedures Manual’ for the HOW portion of this subcommittee’s function.

B. Assets and Revenue
The Promise of Freedom Campout Subcommittee and the Albany Rensselaer Area Service Committee (ARASC) maintain a cooperative relationship and share resources. The Promise of Freedom Campout will have a prudent reserve of $5,100. (PASSED 10/18) Any excess over the prudent reserve at the closing of the campout will be donated to the ARASC. All properties of this subcommittee shall be kept in a storage unit. This subcommittee is responsible for generating sufficient revenue to continue the campout as an ongoing event through the prudent reserve, paid registrations, sales of merchandise and fundraising, if necessary.

The properties and assets of this subcommittee are dedicated to the celebration of recovery from the disease of addiction. No part of the net earnings, properties or assets of this subcommittee shall benefit any individual or group for any purpose other than the production of the campout event.

C. Accounts
1. The Promise of Freedom Campout committee will obtain a bank account.
2. Signatories on the bank account will be Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Treasurer & Vice Treasurer.
3. The responsibilities surrounding financial transactions and financial reporting shall be divided among the four signatories in accordance with appropriate segregation of duties. In the event, all four positions are not filled, specific delegations shall be left to the discretion of the committee provided the following requirements are met.
4. Online access to the bank account be assigned to only one trusted servant, this servant shall be responsible for all financial reporting, this trusted servant will not handle any funds. This servant shall obtain monthly bank statements and perform reconciliations, deliverable at each Area meeting.
5. The responsibility of handling of cash can be delegated to any of the trusted servants not responsible for financial reporting.
6. The POFC may elect to use PayPal to accept electronic payments.
7. The responsibility for handling electronic payments and transfers to the POFC checking account shall be assigned to a trusted servant not responsible for POFC financial reporting.
8. The POFC PayPal account shall use the same e-mail that is being used for registration to ensure the registration committee is aware of all electronic registrations for record keeping purposes.
9. Trusted servant assigned to financial reporting will deliver the full financial report at each monthly meeting of the ARASC including a photocopy of the current bank statement, regardless of activity.
10. Two signatures are required for all checks.
11. The Chair will maintain the list of signatories with the bank and remove or add names as positions are vacated or filled.
D. Budgets
The importance for making a budget for the campout needs to be emphasized. The POFC committee and its subcommittees will list all of the financial responsibilities needed for the campout. They should include campsite, insurance, registration packets, merchandise (T-Shirts) and any other expenses associated with making the campout a successful event. Each subcommittee will turn in to the POFC committee a projected budget for the entire year. The budgets will then be discussed with consideration for each individual subcommittee and then put to a vote by the entire committee. These budgets will be kept and turned over to the committee the following year.

E. Campsite
Location should be decided and voted upon one year prior to the event. The incumbent location should be maintained, if at all possible, to ensure a consistent experience year after year. A deposit will be paid to secure the location along with a written contract signed and approved. This will allow ample time to ensure flyers and information can be disbursed appropriately as well as securing the location. Only voting members may vote. However, all are welcome to come and voice their experience on any location being considered or on ones that should be considered.

F. Campout Registration Sales
Only the Executive Committee members and designated registration subcommittee members can sell campout pre-registrations, and then only with a fully completed registration form. All other pre-registration forms must be mailed to the POFC P.O. Box. Registrations on the day of the event can be paid in cash or by check (not encouraged and should not be posted). All registrations must be logged into a numbered receipt book maintained by the Treasurer.

G. Promise of Freedom Campout Subcommittee Meetings
All POFC subcommittee meetings will take place at a regularly scheduled time and place. The meetings will follow Robert’s Rules of Order. They should be held in a central location of the Albany Rensselaer Area, allowing those wishing to participate the ability to do so.
Subcommittee meetings are to be held monthly until three months prior to the campout, at which time the meetings will be held bi-weekly. At one month prior, meetings will be held weekly. It is advisable to schedule two to three hours to conduct POFC subcommittee business.
The purpose of these meetings is to gather, share, and coordinate information regarding the upcoming campout and/or fundraisers. Special meetings may be called whenever the Chairperson deems necessary. Prior notice of two days must be given to all subcommittee members for special meetings. Special meeting times and location is at the Chairpersons discretion. The agenda for the subcommittee meeting will be set the month prior with help of the *timeline.
*Please refer to the POFC committee’s procedure manual.

1. Attendance
Any committee member who misses two consecutive meetings without notification to the Chairperson or Vice-Chairperson will forfeit their position and will be considered as having resigned at the next scheduled meeting. Their position will be considered as open at that meeting. The trusted servant may send a member from their subcommittee to the committee meeting in their place. This would not constitute as an absence. It shall be up to the discretion of the committee to assign absences as excused or unexcused. All committee leaders and members are expected to be available and serve at the campout event.

2. Voting
To gain voting privileges, you must attend two consecutive meetings of the POFC committee. Voting privileges are forfeited if two consecutive scheduled meetings are missed. There must be a quorum in order to hold a vote. A quorum consists of 50% of the Campout Leaders (Chairperson carries a vote only in case of a tie).
